

Member Referrals – April / May 2017

Miller Haviland, Kansas City, USA

In April, Chuck Haviland requested that a broadcast e-mail be sent out requesting assistance with the tax treatment of Community Improvement Districts.

Cresa, San Diego, USA

Don Mitchell advises that subsequent to the Vancouver and Cape Town conferences Cresa is processing business with Swenson Advisors in San Diego and Glass Jacobson in Baltimore.

RCBM Buenos Aires, Argentina

Oscar Mary once again would like want to express his appreciation of Ted Chiba's help in assisting one of his clients who runs a mission in Japan. Ted has identified bibliography in Japanese to overturn the language barrier with accounting terminology. Oscar's client is a religious organization with missions in 26 countries who is moving from single-language bibliography (Spanish) to multi-language (Spanish, French and English). Nevertheless, we need to bridge the gap from the core languages to many other languages and dialects. As the project moves forward, we may seek similar help from other member firms.

NKC Business & Taxation Consultants, Dublin, Ireland

Neville Kavanagh circulated a broadcast e-mail to the world wide membership of Integra with a business proposition from one of his clients that needed a strategic partner/equity investor to assist with project development and the worldwide distribution of Irish whiskey.

Salman Arshad, Lahore, Pakistan

Ahmad Salman had an e-mail circulated to all members requesting a list of Integra firms that have had experience with audits of the top 500 companies of the world. It was needed as part of an application for a large project.

Hunter Accountants, Bristol, UK

Mark Hunter solicited the help of Greg Gerrol in Hartford with the completion of form W8-Ben-E on behalf of a UK client.

BF Consulting, Vienna, Austria

Franz Schweiger sent a broadcast e-mail to the world wide membership looking for those with experience with project financing and audit of a Public Private Partnership.

HMWC, Los Angeles, USA

Jeff Hipshman requested help from any USA member that has a background in the mining industry related to precious metals and specifically help on the tax side.

Glass Jacobson, Washington, DC, USA

Doug White reports that “we have been doing some work for Wagemann's in both their Berlin and Düsseldorf offices. Glass Jacobson now has German speakers and Wagemann is getting a lot of work for people who need both German and US tax help and we have been doing the US side.”

Levi & Levi, Montreal, Canada

Phil Levi reports that the firm received referrals to provide accounting and tax services from Rick Gimbert (Atlanta) for one of his clients doing business in Canada; from Mark Hunter (Bristol) for one of his clients moving their business to Canada and from Doug White (Washington) for one of his clients entering into a contract to do business in Canada.