

Integra International Announces Alliance With Council of International Investigators

Vancouver, BC (September 6, 2017) – Integra International announces a strategic alliance with the Council of International Investigators (CII). This agreement will promote business opportunities and initiatives among their respective members. Integra International creates alliances in order to:

- Improve the client's experience.
- Increase client retention.
- Distiguish their members and provide a competitive advantage

Integra Global Chair, Doug White would like to encourage both Integra Members and CII Members to attend each others events and reach out to members across the globe in order to serve their clients. Doug explains that “this relationship will be beneficial to both organizations and their members. It gives our member firms the ability to expand services to their clients and provides an avenue to develop more professional relationships.”

The Council of International Investigators (CII) is a network of over 375 professional investigators with offices in 67 countries on all six continents. Founded in 1955, for over 60 years CII has been the gold standard for international investigations. The criteria for membership is among the most rigorous in the profession with each applicant carefully vetted for professionalism, experience, and the highest ethical principles. Members literally cover the world and offer unique solutions in solving problems for business, individuals, and the legal profession. Their collective skill set covers virtually every aspect of the investigative spectrum and our members are known worldwide for their expertise. For more information on how CII members can assist you or your clients visit www.cii2.org

Integra International is an interactive Global Association of local independent accounting, taxation, auditing, and business consulting firms dedicated to advising businesses around the world. Our member firms contain over 4,000 CPAs, CAs and Business Advisors who share knowledge openly and regularly. In a global market place, Integra helps it's members be a global firm, able to help their clients no matter where in the world business takes them. Members offer a wide range of professional services to their clients, meeting their national and international needs. The collective knowledge, education and resources – both domestic and international – of the four thousand professionals involved in Integra International is available to members and their clients.
