FASB Update on Nonprofit Accounting Standards (ASU 2016-14)

Presenters: Bill Sims & Bridget Losa – Salmon Sims Thomas

Bill helps nonprofit organizations maximize their assets and expand their efforts. He enjoys helping nonprofits fulfill the mission for which they've been established. With more than 35 years of experience providing accounting, tax, and business consultation to clients in a variety of industry groups, he is a recognized expert in the nonprofit sector with a concentration in religious organizations, social agencies, country clubs, and associations.

Bridget has over 20 years of experience providing auditing services to a diverse number of industries, including nonprofit organizations, real estate, healthcare, and homeowner associations. Her career includes seven years with Big Four accounting firms and two years in industry.

Integra's fourth webinar will cover

The FASB, on August 18, 2016, completed Phase 1 of its nonprofit accounting revision by issuing ASU No. 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. The FASB says this new guidance simplifies and improves how nonprofit entities classify net assets as well as the information presented in their financial statements and notes about liquidity, financial performance, and cash flows. We will discuss these changes and how accountants and auditors can assist their clients in implementing these changes.
