

Member News – August / September 2014

Levi & Levi (Montreal, Canada)

Levi & Levi are pleased to announce that Philip C. Levi, CFE, FCPA, FCA, CPA/CFF, FCA•IFA has been re-appointed to the Forensic & Litigation Services (FLS) Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants where he has been involved for the past year as a member of the committee as well as the Chair of the Litigation Process Task Force.

The FLS Committee has been the source of countless publications that forensic accounting practitioners use in their daily practice and one of its prime objectives is to provide relevant, timely resources to its members.

Banks Group (Melbourne, Australia)

On November 18, Banks Group will hold its annual Banks Group Foundation 2014 Golf Day.

Chavez Escobar y Asociados (Lima, Peru)

Chavez Escobar y Asociados have a new address:

Av. Arenales 395 oficina 608
Lima, Peru

Swenson Advisors (San Diego, USA)

On October 7, Swenson Advisors will hold its 7th annual Hot Topics seminar entitled Global Security Issues and Other Hot Topics.

Gold Gerstein Group (Philadelphia, USA)

After serving as a member for two years, Stacey Udell will be co-chair in 2015 and 2016 of the AICPA Forensic and Valuation Services Conference.

Gilmour Knotts (Vancouver, Canada)

Gilmour Knotts won 2nd place as best accounting firm in Langley, BC (a suburb of Vancouver).

Lohman Company (Phoenix, USA)

Congratulations to Lohman Company for receiving the Silver Trailblazer award once again this year. The award is presented by the Mesa United Way for the 2013-2014 Workforce Campaign.

Gilmour Knotts (Vancouver, Canada)

Knotts On Friday September 19th, Gilmour Knotts celebrated 20 years in business with the 1st Annual Gilmour Chartered Accountants' Wacky Race.

This charity event was based on the popular TV show, The Amazing Race, and held at the Willoughby Community Park. From 2:30 - 5pm, four teams raced for their favorite charity through various mind-boggling, patience-stretching and endurance-testing tasks while spectators cheered them on.

During the race, teams were asked to untie and wear a frozen t-shirt, translate toddler talk, memorize a Dr. Seuss poem, learn a line dance, climb to the top of the spider web play structure, find a Canadian penny, and identify the spices of life while blindfolded, among other "Wacky" tasks.

Business Development Bank of Canada (BDC) came out on top, winning $825 for the Canadian Cancer Society. Congratulations, BDC!

The Peak Partnership (Brisbane, Australia)

The Peak Partnership is pleased to announce that Robyn Henshaw has been appointed to the role of Associate Director

A full media release can be found on our website in the "News" section.

Prooptiki Ltd (Athens, Greece)

Prooptiki Ltd advises that Maria Sempepou has left the firm. Her replacement as the main Integra contact person is Mrs. Sevi Solomakou who can be contacted at solomakou@prooptikiltd.gr

HMWC (Los Angeles, USA)

While on vacation in Dublin, Ireland recently Gerry Herter had an enjoyable dinner with Kieran McCarthy.

MiddletonRaines + Zapata (Houston, USA)

Congratulations to MiddletonRaines + Zapata for making 3 lists:

- Houston Business Journal's Best Places to Work
- Accounting Today's Best Accounting Firms to Work for
- Houston's Best and Brightest Companies to Work for

Feldstein & Associates (Toronto, Canada)

Please be advised that the e-mail addresses for all of the firm's contacts have changed. Just drop the ".on" (...@feldstein.ca)